

August 12th, 1999

Dear 97'ers, 98'ers, 99'ers and others interested.

Good news!

During summer a lot of experiences made it clear, that giving up the ACC-project had happened to early.

We decided finally to reopen the project. This resulted in a statutory meeting held yesterday August 11th, 1999 at Peoplesite, Denmark.

THE ACC IS REALITY NOW!

A lot of you have signed up for membership already and you will receive a letter with more information in approximately one month.

Untill then you can follow what happens at www.johnp.dk (section ACC). You can also see some "strategy-papers" at this site, including an explanation on why it is only now made public.

Best wishes

John
